HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE GODA RAGHURAM

W.P.NO.6004 OF 2006

ORAL ORDER:

The complaint in the writ petition is that at the instance of the 4th respondent, with whom the petitioners have had financial transactions, the 1st and 3rd respondents are calling the petitioner to Narasaraopet Town police station and coercing them to execute promissory notes and sale deeds in favour of the said respondent.

Responding to the writ petition, the learned Government Pleader for Home had obtained instructions from the respondents 1 to 3 and submits on such instructions that the respondents 1 to 3 have never interfered in civil disputes and have not called the petitioners to the police station ever and have not exerted any pressure on them to execute promissory notes or sale deeds in favour of the 4th respondent.

Recording the submission, the writ petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.
